

The Deserts

ACROSS

2. : Their _____ location in the arctic and the antarctic also ensure projects and other studies can be conducted.
3. : A phenomenon that regulates global temperatures with the help of snow and glaciers. (The answer consists of two words. There is no space between the two words in answers)
7. of the Desert : Camels
8. : The name of the empire unearthed below the Sahara Desert
10. : A term used to describe any land mass, with scarce vegetation and extreme climates.

DOWN

1. Plants with adaptations which allow them to live in hot and dry conditions are called_____.
4. : Type of animals that thrive in both hot deserts and cold deserts.(The answer consists of two words. There is no space between the two words in answers)
5. : Structures where most of earth's freshwater reserves are.
6. : The number of countries surrounded by the Sahara Desert
9. : The type of conditions cold deserts mimic

1 X

2 R E M O T E

R

3 A L B E D O E F F E C T

4 A

P

5 G

L

A

C

I

E

6 E

L

E

V

E

7 S H I P

Y

T

I

C

8 G A R A M A N T I A N

9

A

R

T

I

A

N

C

A

M

E

L

10 D E S E R T S